God loves us All, black white brown and all others the same. We are one, human. Division is a tool of the devil, not of God. Who has been dividing the sides? Ya know that history,, she's a bytch. She don't gaf what your political moniker is, but she's there to remind you of where you've been and what you've done. Good or bad history never picks a side. She just spills the beans for all to see. Anyone know the number for the FBI? . . .
